

Cooperative Transportation Systems Pooled Fund Study

Program to Support the Development and Deployment of Cooperative Transportation Systems Applications

University of Virginia Center for Transportation Studies

Progress Report
September 2012

Project Activities/Progress

1. Pooled Fund Study Overall
 - a. The PFS management team attended a three-day Connected Vehicle Safety workshop in Chicago on September 25-27, provided by US DOT (RITA and FHWA).
2. Year 3 Research Program
 - a. A process to advertise the request for proposals for two projects – see below – was initiated on September 4th.
 - i. Traffic Management Centers in a Connected Vehicle Environment
 - ii. 5.9GHz Dedicated Short Range Communication Vehicle Based Road and Weather Condition Application
 - b. The RFPs were finalized after incorporating UVA contractual terms through email correspondence with the UVA procurement office.
3. PFS Dynamic Mobility Application Project
 - a. Concept of Operations
 - i. A revised ConOps Notebook was delivered on September 11th.
 - ii. A report of comment resolution report was delivered on September 12th.
 - iii. A revised ConOps was delivered on September 14th.
 - b. On September 11th 1:00-2:00 PM EDT, a quarterly call was held.

Project Status

The project is on schedule.

Invoice Notes

None